

Marriage License Application Instructions and Form

Step 1

Get the marriage license application form from either:

- In-person from a Court Clerk at Tulalip Tribal Court, or
- Online via Tulalip Tribal Court website (www.tulaliptribalcourt-nsn.gov) under “Forms and Filings.”

Step 2

Complete the application form and sign it in front of a notary. There is a notary public at the court.

- NOTE: The affidavits for both applicants are located on the same single page form.
- NOTE: All forms must be filled out in black or blue ink, contain original signatures, and be notarized by a notary public – NO faxed signatures.

Step 3

Return completed application form and pay $100 fee in-person at Tulalip Tribal Court.

Step 4

Clerk will process the application, please allow 1 business day to process. Pick up the following documents from the Court Clerk:

- Marriage License: gives the person performing the ceremony authority to marry. The Court Clerk will fill this out.
- Certificate of Marriage from Tulalip: certifies that a marriage was performed. You will fill this out and return it to the Clerk. The officiant’s signature is needed.
- Certificate of Marriage from Washington State: certifies that a marriage was performed for Washington State public health records. You will fill this out and return it to the Clerk. The officiant’s signature is needed.
- NOTE: If you are requesting return copies by mail, you must provide a self-addressed, stamped envelope, and allow 30 days for processing and return. License will not be mailed without a return envelope, and are deposited in the US mail at the licensee’s risk.
